

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Dr. Lovely Razdan

For the successful completion of the

Shipping Infectious Substances & Biological Specimens Workshop

Including: The Class 6.2 Dangerous Goods Shipping General Awareness and Function Specific Training

New Delhi, India

10-11 March 2022

This certificate is for demonstrating the knowledge and competencies required by IATA /ICAO for a shipper of Class 6.2 dangerous goods and dry ice.

Trained and tested as per IATA DGR 1.5 & Part 1, Chapter 4 of ICAO Technical Instructions in dangerous goods general awareness; function specific competency demonstrated for Class 6.2 & 9 in the areas listed at right.

Training and evaluation provided by: Sandia National Laboratories

- Applicability of dangerous goods regulations
- Limitations and variations, import and export
- Classification of biological specimens
- Exceptions to the regulations
- Selecting proper packaging
- Packing of infectious substances, Category A, Category B and exempt human/animal specimens
- Packing Instruction 620, 650 and 954
- Marking and labeling
- Using overpacks
- Completing the Shipper's Declaration and air waybill
- Additional considerations when shipping with dry ice

Linda J. Winona, Ph.D.

Cecelia V. Williams, Ph.D.

